Title of the thesis: Pension reform in Georgia - how to do it well

Year of the defence: 2018

Supervisor name and affiliation: doc. Ing. Stanislav Klazar, Ph.D.

Reviewer name and affiliation: Ing. Gejza Trgiňa

THESIS CONTENT SUMMARY:
Very good and detailed thesis, logical construction excellent.

OBJECTIONS AND REMARKS:
At the end of the thesis, I would appreciate some econometric model composed of the variables that the author devotes during the work with the consequent impact on which of the scenarios mentioned in the of the thesis would be more appropriate to use.

QUESTIONS FOR THE DEFENCE:

Do you think that the several-year gradual increase in the number of pensioners will cause some major changes in the system in the near future and possibly what?

What are the main aspects of the stagnant population of Georgia shown in Figure 12 of the US Census Bureau?

Which of the two scenarios mentioned at the end of the work would you prefer, and what reasons would that lead to you?
