formal requirements, whether the thesis is/is not recommended for defense. It may also be nominated for a special award, etc.):

Ms. Mariya Korolenko completed her bachelor thesis according to the given requirements of methodology of the Faculty of Economics in terms of the quality of contents, and formal requirements. She provides a standard economic analysis of intuitional framework and its impact on the log-term growth. The empirical model has its limitation, however, the econometrics and economic discussion has a very good quality. The potential of the author has been fully exploited. The author demonstrated the full ability of economic and empirical analysis.

6. Questions and remarks to the defense:

Are results of your empirical analysis compatible with the standard growth theory? If yes, which theory is the most relevant for your thesis?

What are the Ukraine's strategic challenges for the future?

Proposed grade: very good
